9. The journal team will format each and every article and share with the author for final review which must be checked and returned within 48 hours and even before.

Peer Review Process

Research and review articles received from open call and individual invitation are peer-reviewed, double-blind, before publication. The Managing Editor sends original research and review articles to Section Editors for initial review of the work's relevance to the journal. They submit draft decisions to the Editor-in-Chief for final decision about further review or rejection. The initial review process will be short and not last longer than six weeks. Perspectives, including case studies and interviews, are reviewed by Section Editors and cleared with the Editor-in-Chief. These are subject to double blind peer review. Reviewer board will be consulted for assistance to search expert in the same area and may be requested to review also. It consists of 6 levels of review including editorial and blind peer review as follows:

Level One: Checking paper structure

Level Two: Checking and detailed checking plagiarism (Less than 10%, No paragraph should have half to full para plag). Also check for unique title by searching the title in Google, Google scholar, and plag checker result.

Level Three: Checking grammar and typographic mistakes using integrated software.

Level Four: Checking review of methods, format, title, keywords, tables & figures, and citations.

Level Five: Review of analysis/results/ novelty, further improvements, journal to be considered, area, type, through double blind peer review.

Level Six: After journal formatting, DOI, checking page numbers, glancing on PDF before final publication by editor and author proofreading.

ProD frequently publishes calls for papers on various topics. Please visit each section's homepage for calls for papers specific to the relevant section.

Please direct all editorial inquiries to the journal editorial team at: prod@mbmc.edu.np
